

NCCR is happy to announce that they will be able to provide on line lectures and they have already made this possible in their yearly orientation program for research scholars. Now they have also made on line lectures to two organisations already in this year of 2012 one to Poornaprajna institute of scientific research and also DRDO laboratory in Delhi on 6 and 13th January 2012. Now they hope to give on line lectures simultaneously to multiple institutions. Those who wish to make use of this facility they have to send an email with the topic and possible convenient time and NCCR will try to make it possible
